Boston Chief Enjoins Effort For Closed Shop

Biston, Mass. Now. So-A strike of shoemakers which begins at the factory of the Thomas G. Plant company May 18, 1918; is an effort by labor unions to enfurce a closed shop, was ordered to cease in an injunction granted by the superior court today. Long unions of the United Shoe Workers of America and of the Allied Shoe Workers' union of greater Poston, are smoothed perpetually by the degree from any attempt to being about a closed shop. The injunction is said to do one of the most sweeping ever granted by a court in this state.
